DETAILED ACTION

Response to Remarks

1. The applicant filed an IDS on 2/27/09.
2. Upon consideration of the prior art cited on the IDS, The indicated allowability of claims 2-6 and 8-11 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) to Kamijo. Rejections based on the newly cited reference(s) follow.
3. Claims 1 and 7 are cancelled.

Claim Objections

4. Claims 3,6,10 and 11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 2,4,5,8 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kamijo (JP 63-309094).

Regarding claim 2, Kamijo discloses a loudspeaker apparatus, in which a partition wall (5 partitioning plate; See Constitution section, Figures 1-4) provided at a right angle to a center of a speaker (Figures 1-4) that is installed on a front board of a cabinet divides an inside space of the cabinet into at least two (Figures 1-4).

Kamijo teaches its speaker improves the tonal quality. Kamijo fails to explicitly teach of emitting sound in middle and low frequency range from one of the divided space in the cabinet and emitting sound in middle and high frequency range from the other divided space in the cabinet.

MPEP 2114....states that while features of an apparatus may be recited either structurally or functionally, claims <directed to >an< apparatus must be distinguished from the prior art in terms of structure rather than function. Also, a claim containing a "recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus" if the prior art apparatus teaches all the structural limitations of the claim. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1987).

Kamijo clearly has the structural limitations of the claim and the intended use of the structure cannot differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus.

Regarding claims 4,5,8 and 9, the examiner asserts that the limitations of these claims are a matter of design choice. It would have been obvious to modify Kamijo to include the limitations of claims 4,5,8 and 9 to provide a better looking loudspeaker.
